In February the OBC: Opticians of British Columbia, along with Eyelogic hosted an educational event for sight testing opticians and their associates. The College of Opticians of British Columbia was invited to participate by addressing issues of concern to opticians focusing on the new Standards of Practice for sight testing.

This event was so well received that the OBC: Opticians of British Columbia and Eyelogic have decided to host a second event for sight testing opticians in the Kelowna area. The College of Opticians of British Columbia has accepted our invitation to once again participate as a presenter and resource for response to questions.

The OBC: Opticians of British Columbia is pleased to invite Eyelogic's B.C. representative, Mary Anne Elias to address the delegates and provide them with an update on the use of Eyelogic automated sight testing equipment in Canada.

This is anticipated to be a very informative evening and we invite sight testing opticians and those who are considering adding a sight testing service to attend. Ancillary staff is welcome to attend as well. A buffet meal will be served.
